

FAMILY ACTIVITIES: CALIFORNIA

Please note: These activities and prices are current as of September 2013.
Always check the websites for current pricing and hours!

Jelly Belly Factory

1 Jelly Belly Lane
Fairfield, CA 94533

Cost: Free factory tours

Wheelchair accessibility: Accessible factory tour (elevator available)

Pros: Lots of color and smells! Samples of jelly beans available, and you can buy jelly belly's and "belly flops"

Website: <https://www.jellybelly.com>

---

Sonoma Train Town Railroad

20264 Broadway
Sonoma, CA 95476

Cost: $5.75 per person per train ride (other activities extra)

Wheelchair accessibility: Train and paths throughout park are accessible

Pros: A quarter scale railroad on 4 miles of track. Each train trip lasts 20-minutes and goes through tunnels, over bridges and makes a stop in Lakeview- the miniature town and petting zoo. Amusement rides.

Safari West

Location/Address:

Mailing Address: 3115 Porter Creek Road
Guest Entrance: On Franz Valley Road
Santa Rosa, CA 95404

Cost: Adults vary from $70-$80 depending on time of year

Children 3-12: $32

Wheelchair accessibility: Walking paths are smooth and accessible; vehicles are not accessible, so individuals have to be transferred into the vehicle

Pros: 3-hour riding and walking adventure in Safari West's 400-acre preserve. On the drive, you'll come in contact with giraffes, gazelles, zebras, onyx, antelopes, cape buffalo, wildebeests and many of the other 600 animals in an exotic African savannah setting. On the walk, you'll observe the birds in our open-air aviary, check out cheetahs up close and personal, and laugh at the antics of the residents on Lemur Island.

Cons: The price; the length of the tour is too long for some

Website: <http://www.safariwest.com>